THE ENGLISH OF IT.

This item is from the New York Sun:

"Irving and Terry will be the next attraction, and seats are now selling at fabulous prices for their first nights."

We believe the fabulous price is $4. That means $1.50 for the performance and $2.50 for the English of it. There is not an American artist on the stage—there was not even when Booth and Barrett were alive and in their strength—who could, with the best support in the world, command $4 houses for more than two or three nights in any place in the United States. It is the tariff tax on the foreign article, and in this case, at least, the consumers have to pay it. If Miss Terry were an American woman who had left her husband and gone off with an actor, and Mr. Irving were the finest actor that ever trod the boards in America, and was still an American, they would simply play to $1.50 houses or to empty benches. Surely we need a shock of some kind to arouse the self respect of Americans. What ought to be, should be a notice to Miss Terry and Mr. Irving that the house would be filled indefinitely at $1.50; that beyond that the American people would stay at home and read Shakespeare in preference to being robbed. Mr. Irving is worth no more in the United States than in England. He is entitled to a fair English price and no more. Still, he knows the American people are the most gullible people on earth and he proceeds to gull them. He takes the same view of America that Mr. Gladstone does, to wit, that the United States owes England a good deal of money, and he wants to collect it in the shortest space of time, and wants it in the best money in the world. Mr. Irving is a gentleman who believes in "sound finance."

The attempt to get up a stock deal in this city has not met with distinguished success. A temporary furor was created, but a plain, unvarnished statement of the facts in yesterday's Chronicle knocked the bottom out of the thing. A few years ago any attempt to persuade the people that they were making donkeys of themselves when they turned over their hard earned coin to a set of sharks who manipulated the market was a wasted effort, but constant familiarity with what are known as "Irish dividends" has at last had its effect, and an allusion to probable assessments and other facts soon disposes of all illusions and makes would-be investors ponder over the chances of winning in a "skin game."

The Republican Senators performed their duty as Republicans and patriots; they neither hesitated nor changed front. The people always know where the Republican party stands upon every public question.—Carson Tribune.

Especially the silver question. They stood up nobly on that. The political complexion of the vote on the Voorhees bill was: For repeal—Republicans, 24; Democrats, 19; Populists, 0. Against repeal—Republicans, 9; Democrats, 19; Populists, 4.—Sentinel.

A Big Light For the Fair.

Negotiations between the General Electric Company and Director-General de Young of the Midwinter Exposition culminated today in the signing of a highly important contract. The Director-General secures by this contract the largest search light in the world for use on the Exposition grounds. This wonderful light has a reflector five feet in circumference. It is of 2,500,000 candle-power and will throw light a distance of ten miles of such intensity that a newspaper can be read under its rays.

Ten Russian convicts arrived in San Francisco on whaling vessels, which picked them up at sea. They escaped from a penal colony and the disposition to be made of them is perplexing the authorities at Washington. They are at large but under surveillance.

Will sell goods so cheap, that you will be amazed at your own stupidity in having patronized high-priced establishments. These are grinding times and it behooves you to place your money where it will do the most good.

We are selling best two and four point BARBED WIRE at 4 1-4 cents per pound. The oldest inhabitant will tell you that this is remarkably cheap, unparalleled in the history of Carson.

We have reduced the prices of everything we carry in stock; Groceries, Provisions, Liquors, Hardware, Tinware, Crockery, Paints, Oils, Wall Paper, etc., can be purchased at this Emporium at a less percentage of profit than elsewhere. No necessity for sending your money to California, thinking you can save something for we will be more than pleased to duplicate your bill.

Give us a trial order and make your comparisons with purchases at home or abroad and be convinced. Orders from the country, as well as Carson and its environs will receive our prompt attention.
